

Question time

Why is it Lord

That some babies are born with wretched congenital defects?
doomed to a life of little succour or success, not even once to have the simple enjoyment of raindrops kissing an excited face turned towards the sky.
The carers consigned to a sacrificial life of constant struggle, echoed, enlarged and etched forever on even the most willing spirit, which eventually succumbs in hopeless, lonely despair.

That is not fair Lord.

And why is it Lord that you allow, or do not prevent savage and bestial attacks by some of your flock on their spiritual brothers, sisters, other family members, acquaintances or sometimes complete strangers?

I cannot understand that Lord.

Also Lord,

You are accorded as having the power to create this earth, in only seven days and then enjoy a perpetual hallowed reign over all your creations and dominions, so why do you permit vast geographical disasters such as earthquakes, floods and fire, to occur with such numbing regularity and devastation?

Why test our endurance with the destructive forces of old and new epidemic diseases, wars and famine?

These events are bewildering Lord.

And another thing Lord

Is it necessary for the elderly to suffer so, at the end of their days? it hardly seems a fair reward for those who have contributed to society in a selfless and laudable manner, to suffer the ultimate degenerative indignity.

Not a good reward Lord

So there it is Lord

If there are reasoned answers to these reasonable questions please let me know.

You should have my contact details.

© 2010 Carl Leddy